$1.00 A YEAR.

MARIE DILL, Editor and Proprietor.

FRIDAY, AUG. 29, 1902.

The Chancellor of the British Exchequer announces a deficit of 15,000,000 pounds sterling, $45,000,000, and that that amount must be raised by a loan to meet current obligations of the government.

Charlie Carnegie, a twelve year-old nephew of the great philanthropist, the leader of a strike of special delivery boys in the Pittsburgh postoffice recently.

Commissioner of pensions, Ware, has issued an order that none of the employees at his office shall indulge hereafter in any beverage that intoxicates during office hours.

The care with which the President has guarded the interests of the country in giving his consent to the laying of the new Pacific cable shows a high grade of statesman ship backed by the firmest kind of loyalty and patriotism.

The ocean trip by Secretary Moody, Representative Cannon, and the members of congress who are to witness the sham battles on the coast, will not be at government expense, and here is another opportunity the opposition press will lose of being made temporarily happy.

Senator Millard, of Nebraska, is credited with being in favor of the best sugar men and their interests, and as a consequence, has been figured on as an anti-administration man, but he sets all speculation at rest by announcing that he is for Nebraska and Roosevelt, best sugar or no beet sugar.

Among the interesting items published in the "Hand Book" sent out by the Republican Congressional Committee is this one item of drinks: "The drink bill of the United States last year amounted to $425,504,167, of which $93,492,274 was paid to the trusts, which includes all wines, beers, liquors and beverages of every kind."

The navy department has accomplished a work of saving to the government and of thoughtful care for the sailors and marines who need transportation between New York and San Francisco by securing the very advantageous rates of $28.75 per man, as against a regular fare of from $75 to $83 for regular passengers, and a sleeping car rate of $6 instead of the regular $30.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list testimonials. Address, P. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists, 75c. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

Senator Hanna addressed an audience of 10,000 people recently on "Labor and Capital." He handled the subject as a master and not as it has heretofore been handled by the partisan friends of either. Among the pertinent things he said were: "The laboring man is entitled to a greater share of the profits of industry," "workers are right in more than 50 per cent of the strikes," "organized labor and organized capital are here to stay."

Facts Not Fiction.

There are those who your liver needs a tonic. Don't give purgatives that give and weaken. DeWitt's Little Early Risers expel all poison from the system and acts as a tonic to the liver. W. Scott, 531 Highland Ave., Milton, Pa., says: "I have carried DeWitt's Little Early Risers with me for several years and would not be without them." Small and easy to take. Purely vegetable. They never grip or distress.

Constipation

Does your head ache? Pain back of your eyes? Bad taste in your mouth? Is your liver? Ayer's Pills are liver pills. They cure constipation, headache, dyspepsia.

NEWPORT ARCHITECTURE

The villages of Newport afford a strange commentary upon the contrasting tastes of the American nation. Their heterogeneity were impossible in a race of settled culture, in a race of common blood, in a country of limited extent. But the United States is a nation of nations. Its people are not Americans, but Englishmen and Scotsmen, Frenchmen and Germans, Italians and Spaniards of the third or fourth or tenth generation. Their taste in architecture is a taste that was born on the sunny Mediterranean shore, in cozy Normandy orchards, in classic Spain and Italy, in baronial Scotland and England. It is revealed in the chateaux, the castles, the villas, the logias of Newport. Seville, Welbeck, Florence and Fafais, here stand side by side on the same strip of grass, separated only by a grille from Venice or Antwerp.

To the alien observer this curious variety of styles at first argues a strange lack of settled opinion. But to the student of psychology it represents not so much a want of taste as a vast variety of tastes descended from remote European ancestors. It is not so much a manifestation of mimicry as it is the demonstration of hereditary predilections. To time they will coalesce into an American estheticism. But that time is not yet and in the variety of Newport architecture lies the promise of an art that in the near future will be national, distinctive.—September Smart Set.

CONDENSED STORIES.

How He Enlightened the Lady and Brought Her State.

Representative Powers of Maine was coming down through the capitol grounds one day when he was stopped by a lady who was examining minutely a small magnolia tree.

"Will you be so kind," said the lady, "as to tell me what kind of a tree this is?"

"That, madam," replied Representative Powers, in his most courteous manner, "is a lemon tree."

"Dear me," said the lady, "are you sure? I never saw a lemon tree before."

"Quite sure, madam. There are great groves of them in my state."

"And what is your state, if I may ask?"

"Maine, madam."

"Why, I never knew lemon trees grew in Maine."

"Madam," said Representative Powers, bowing low, "lack of knowledge simply affords me the in-finite pleasure of imparting to you the information. Besides, the re-sources of the great state of Maine are too little exploited in these days of commercial rush and hurry."

Then he walked on and the lady took a twig from the magnolia as a souvenir.—Washington Letter.

Regretted the Courtesy. Charles Steckler was passing through Wall street one day last week when a railroad magnate with

"I wish I had that match back again," whom he is acquainted stopped him and asked for a match to light his cigar.

Mr. Steckler supplied the desired bit of splinter and brimstone, then, merely by way of courtesy, asked:

"How is the Blank, Blank and Blank railroad coming along now?"

The magnate, who had probably had an unfortunate experience with the market that morning, was out of temper and answered curtly:

"What do you ask me for? I'm no curbstone tout."

Steckler looked down at him for a moment and then said sorrowfully:

"I wish I had that match back again!"—New York World.

All Were Saved. "For years I suffered such untold misery from Bronchitis," writes J. H. Johnston, of Broughton, Ga., "that often I was unable to work. Then, when everything else failed, I was wholly cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. My wife suffered intensely from Asthma, till it cured her, and all our experience goes to show it is the best Croup medicine in the world." A trial will convince you it's unrivaled for Throat and Lung diseases. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1. Trial bottles free at Ridgeway & Co.

On the back of a two dollar bill which was taken in by a firm in Vandalia, Ill., was written in red ink the following: "This is the last left of a $40,000 fortune, and I have murdered my wife and two little children, and whose hands this money may fall into take warning. William Coffin, Toledo, August 10, 1902. Whiskey did it."

To My Friends. It is with joy I tell you what Kodol did for me. I was troubled with my stomach for several months. Upon being advised to use Kodol, I did so, and words cannot tell the good it has done me. A neighbor had dyspepsia so that he had tried most everything. I told him to use Kodol. Words of gratitude have come to me from him because I recommended it.—Geo. W. Fry, Viola, Iowa. Health and strength, of mind and body, depend on the stomach, and normal activity of the digestive organs. Kodol, the great reconstructive tonic, cures all stomach and bowel troubles, indigestion, dyspepsia. Kodol digests any good food you eat. Take a dose after meals. C. M. Ridgeway.

Just Look After. When came that brightly step, faultless skin, rich, rosy complexion, smiling face. She looks good, feels good. Here's her secret. She uses Dr. King's New Life Pills. Result—all organs active, digestion good, no headaches, no chance for "bilious." Try them yourself. Only 25c at Ridgeway & Co.

lits Sight Threatened. "While picnicking last month my 11-year-old boy was poisoned by some weed or plant," says W. H. Dibble, of Sioux City, Ia. "He rubbed the poison off his hands into his eyes and lost his sight. Finally a neighbor recommended Dr. Williams' Witch Hazel Salve. The first application helped him and in a few days he was as well as ever." For skin diseases, cuts, burns, scalds, wounds, insect bites, Dr. Williams' Witch Hazel Salve is sure cure. Thousands of young and middle-aged men are actually swept to a premature grave through early abuse or later excess. Charles Anderson was one of the victims, but was rescued in time. He says: "I suffered an evil habit, a change soon came over me. I could feel my friends noticed it. I became nervous, despondent, gloomy, had no ambition, easily tired, evil forebodings, poor circulation, pimples on face, back, neck, dreams and drains at night, tired and weak mornings, burning sensation. To make matters worse, I became reckless and contracted a blood disease. I tried many doctors and medical firms—all failed till Dr. Kennedy & Kergan took my case. In one week I felt better, and in a few weeks was entirely cured. They are the only reliable and honest Specialists in the country."

A Name Full of Meaning. Dr. S. Weir Mitchell is as quick with his spoken as the written word, says the Baltimore Herald. A gathering of Philadelphia business men was discussing the general failure in the asphalt trust, owing principally to Castro's (of Venezuela) bad habits.

The public was thoroughly shy of investing further funds in asphalt companies, and the leaders of the enterprise were having great difficulty in securing the money necessary to rehabilitate the concern. They were lamenting the shyness of investors in asphalt companies, when Dr. Mitchell said:

"It is the word 'asphalt' that frightens them off before the matter can be explained. Why don't you drop the 'asphalt' from the companies and use some equivalent of less evil sound to those who have been bit in the last failure? Why not call it the Bit-son-mon-come-pany?" But, as afterward developed, the idea failed to go with the board of directors.

Chinese Widows. In China, that land of contradictions, it is not considered to be good form in good society for widows, however young, to marry again. By way of compensation, however, the estate of widowhood is held in the highest esteem, and widows are more honored as they advance in years. A widow of mature age, in fact, is regarded somewhat in the style of the finest port wine very old in bottle. If the lady reaches the age of fifty, she can obtain an imperial certificate of her age and virtues, and this tablet is put up prominently over the door of her house so that all may read.—London Times.

A Race of Warlike Dwarfs.

The inhabitants of the Andaman islands are the smallest race of known human beings—that is, taken as an average. The height of a full grown Andamanid seldom exceeds three and a half feet, and few weigh over sixty-five pounds. They are said to be marvelously swift on foot as well as being possessed with extraordinary powers of endurance. The few travelers who occasionally visit the islands avoid contact with the dwarfs as far as possible, partially on account of their extreme filthiness, but principally on account of their warlike dispositions and their handiness with poisoned spears.

Gray Hair

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for over thirty years. It has kept my scalp free from dandruff and has prevented my hair from turning gray."—Mrs. F. A. Soule, Billings, Mont.

There is this peculiar thing about Ayer's Hair Vigor—it is a hair food, not a dye. Your hair does not suddenly turn black, look dead and lifeless. But gradually the old color comes back,—all the rich, dark color it used to have. The hair stops falling, too.

If your druggist cannot supply you, send us a dollar and we will express you a bottle. Return and give the name of your nearest express office. Address: J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

America's Grandest Peak.

Of our thousands of high mountains the loftiest, so far as known, is Mount McKinley, in Alaska, which rears an altitude of 20,464 feet. Asia, with Mount Everest, in the Himalayas, 29,002 feet high, and South America, with Aconcagua, in the Andes, 22,900 feet, alone exceed this continent of ours in extreme altitude, according to Everybody's Magazine.

From this mass great glaciers flow down to the low country, one of them stretching from the central peak down to the Sushijna, a length of forty miles. No attempt has yet been made upon this great mountain; indeed no one has yet approached it nearer than forty miles, the height having been determined by partial angles taken at that distance. Even the camera itself has not succeeded in stealing its portrait. But the fact that here stands, unclimbed, the highest peak in North America, overtopping St. Elias by half a vertical mile, is a standing challenge to adventurous spirits to whom labor, exposure and danger are trifles when there is a prospect of reaching its summit.

THE NEEDLE

One of the Most Ancient Implements of Which We Have Record.

The needle is one of the most ancient implements or instruments of which we have any record. The old time needles were unlike the modern luxury, they having been made of wood, bronze, bone, etc., and without eyes, a circular depression at the blunt end having been so fashioned as to enable them to carry the thread. Pliny describes the needles of bronze which were used by the ancient Greeks and Romans, and since his day similar instruments have been found in comparative abundance both at Herculaneum and Pompeii.

The first account of the manufacture of "white iron" or steel needles says that they were made at Nuremberg in 1460, and while the exact date is in doubt they are said to have been made in Britain as early as 1645. The account further adds that the first needles manufactured in England were made by a Spanish negro, who died without having taught any one his art.

During the reign of Elizabeth the industry was revived, and, strange to say, also by a foreigner, a native of India. The forerunner of the present great Redditch needle manufactory was established by Christopher Greening and a Mr. Damer in 1650. Many unsuccessful attempts were made to bring out the "drilled eye" needle before it was finally introduced in 1826. Two years later the "burnishing machine," with which the eyes of needles are highly polished, was completed. In this machine, which is very simple, the needles are all strung on a wire, which revolves rapidly, thereby imparting a beautiful finish to the eye.
